“ My wife Diane and I are very sorry to hear of Bob's passing, and he will definitely be missed. We shared many good times with Bob and Betty when we lived in Chicago, and have fond memories of them. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of their family and friends.

“ Just not sure what to say, except I really enjoyed your company and the fact that you laughed at my jokes, I miss you, and I am so sad that you were taken from us so soon. I really admire your strength and patience with the difficult road you were on. I'll be talking to you, and I will do my best to watch out for Betty and Correnna. See you later, Bob!

“ Bob was an amazing person who was able to cheer anyone up no matter what kind of mood they were in. I remember he loved to sing to some oldies songs and he would always get other people to sing with him. He was always a happy person. I will miss him very much. Rest in Peace
