“ I didn't know Shane for very long but the times spent with him were fun and I instantly liked him and could see that he was a good hearted person. I hope his friends and family take comfort in each other and continue to share memories and stories about him to the world so his memory will continue to live on even though his life was taken way too soon. My sincere condolences.

“ From the day we started hanging out and getting serious I knew I'd love Shane for the rest of my life. Between being so willing to make anyone smile and having such a good heart I couldn't resist being around him. We spent months straight getting to really know each other and making each other laugh. When we first found out we were having a baby I told him that I was happy he was the baby's father because he was so, so loving. He loved our girl before he even got a chance to meet her. I will make sure Amelia knows that. I will never forget the good memories. His hugs and kisses, his dancing everywhere including in the car, his laughs and his cries, and most importantly, his excitement for our baby. I hope he left this world knowing he was deeply loved, not just by me but by the many people that have expressed their sadness after his passing. Watch over our Amelia Layne, Shane. I'll do my best to raise a great girl. I will miss you forever. Rest in paradise, Condiment King! :-)
