“ Dear Aunt June and family- I have so many great memories of time Spent with Uncle Alfred. We had lots of fun camping and fishing. He was always smiling and telling jokes of course. Once the outboard motor Fell of his homeade pontoon. Of course everyone thought that was pretty Funny. I'll remember his great love of dogs over the years. He was a geat Man and will be missed by his loving family. Our sympathy and prayers.
Love, Sally and a Randy Pettitt
