July 1, 1965 - April 8, 2014

Andrea M. Guntharp - Rockford

Andrea is at rest. At 48, she leaves us too soon. She joins her loving parents Don and Fern Schneider in eternity, her ashes buried with them at Calvary Catholic Cemetery in Rockford. Andi lives on through all of us. Her children Rhianna and Bryson were her pride and her strength, and she loved their partners Dorian and Lauren as her own. Her grandchildren Landon, Renee and Vincent were her source of love and joy. They will miss her laugh and her lap. The soon to be twins will learn of her love. Her siblings and their spouses, Deb and Jerry, Sue and Don, Darrell and Erika, Chris and Lisa, Sandy, Karla and Johnny will forever miss their little sista; her hug and her kiss we will keep close to our hearts. Her 11 nephews and nieces all have warm memories of their Auntie Andi. Her numerous and loving Aunties, Uncles and Cousins will remember and miss the youngest of the Schneider clan. Her friends knew her to be so much fun and will miss her sense of humor. Her coworkers will miss a loyal and trustworthy friend. Her Heartland family will miss her help and her love. Now that her bodily pain has ended, may her soul find comfort and peace and may we help her spirit live on. You are invited to a Celebration of Life and Prayer Service on Friday, April 18 at 2 p.m. at Klehm Arboretum and Botanic Garden, 2715 S. Main St. Rockford. Memorial visitation begins at 12 p.m. until the time of service. In lieu of flowers, donations to Noah's Ark, 111 N. First St. Rockford, IL 61107. Grace Funeral & Cremation Services is assisting the family. To share a memory or condolence, visit www.graceFH.com.

“ I am having a hard time putting into words just how much Andrea meant to me. She taught me all that I know. She was the most intelligent woman that I had ever had the priviledge to know, though she was very humble about it. She also had her crazy side too. I loved this because I knew that I could be totally myself with her. She has gone through so much in the last few years that to those of us that new her saw just how strong of a person she was. I considered her a true friend and I loved her as a sister. I will truly miss her. Janet Danger

I found this reading to share...

When your heart has beaten for the last time, there's only one thing that God will be looking for at the gates of eternity:

Jesus, His Son, with His arm around you saying, " This ones with Me."

“ Dear all -

This does not happen often but I'm literally at a loss for words. When I don't know where to start, I turn to google. I found the following words of wisdom and thought this was perfect given your large family:

If you don't understand how a woman could both love her sister dearly and want to wring her neck at the same time, then you were probably an only child.

- Linda Sunshine (Really?! Do you think that's her REAL name?! Doubtful)

Maybe this isn't the right time to share, but here's my first memory of Andi: She was such a cute little girl. We were at your house in Rockford, and everyone was paying attention to her; "Oh look how cute Andi is ... running all over the yard," so I pushed her down. Yeah, I'm not the nice person everyone thinks I am. When I'm in an awkward place, I turn to humor. If I thought that story would offend any of you, I wouldn't have shared it; I hope it made you laugh.

Cherish your memories, and share them among yourselves over the next few days. It'll make you laugh, smile, and maybe wet your pants a little - which is a good thing.

I'm truly sorry for the loss of your beloved sister. I wish I could be there to celebrate the life of your sister. Please pass along my sympathies to Bryson and Rhianna.

*I love you guys,
Cousin Barb*

*When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure.
