“ I thank God for Bonnie Insko. She was a sweet, humble servant of the Lord. She was a great blessing to me when I was the pastor at Christ Our Savior. She truly had a servant's heart. She never sought the limelight or any special recognition, but she could always be depended on when service was needed, with never a complaint and always a smile. I can still see her sitting in the back pew and laughing as my wife, Ruby, and Ann Ballard were in their dog costumes performing for VBS. She was not only a great help, but also a very dear friend of Ruby and me. Both women loved the Lord deeply. Ruby beat Bonnie to their Savior's arms by eight years, but now they're rejoicing together in His presence. And Bonnie too has heard those wonderful words from her Lord, "Well done, good and faithful servant!"
