“ I knew Carl through my brother in law, John Berry, as his best friends. I dated him many years later as his smile was infectious, HAD A HUGE AND GIVING HEART with a growl at times.

“ Carl always made me laugh. If he got angry about something he would act like a tiger, but I knew he was a kitten inside. You were like a brother to me. I will love you always. Give John Berry and Shorty a big hug for me.

“ Wow.. Where do I start. Met at open house at Morton East to start our freshman year 1960. Did many homecoming dances and ate at the wishing well. Had many Sundays at Millbridge roller ring as he took the train , walked, or got a ride from Cicero to Lyons just to see me and skate. At 19 he joined the Marines, but even tho we broke up we always kept in touch. As of his last birthday we laughed and talked about aging and who would go first.

He suppose to give me a sign from the other side what it was like. Carl, I'll be waiting for that sign. Love ya and I will miss our talks and laughs.

Hugs and Kisses 🍷🥰🥰🥰🥰
