“ I was lucky enough to have spent a lot of time at "Aunt Carol's" house in my early teens. She was one of the kindest and gentlest people I have ever met. God bless her.

“ To Lisa and family: I was saddened to see your mom had passed away. She was much too young with a lot of things yet to accomplish. She hadn't won her million yet!!! I remember especially one time in the grill area and her talking about how people change during life. That was part of maturing. I have never forgot her words of wisdom while dressing a tray of quarter pounders.. May she rest in peace. My sympathy to all of you. Audrey Maxey (former McDonalds)
