

Cevin R. Schweinler

April 28, 1958 - August 25, 2023

Cevin R. Schweinler, born April 28, 1958 to Charles and Eileen (Tramm) Schweinler lived life to the fullest. He loved to race motocross and for many years, worked at Byron's Motosports Park as the track official. He was a man's man, always working with his hands, including Ingersoll Milling Machine, Barker Rockford, Rockford Ball Screw, Golf Creations, several paper mills in the south and most recently at Freeway Rockford. His proudest moment was the birth of his son, Alex; followed by the birth of his granddaughter Finley Rae. He lovingly cared for his mother in her home until she passed away in 2021 at age 97. He never missed an opportunity to check on Alex, Hayley and Finley. He will be missed by all, but especially by his son Alex (Hayley Miller); granddaughter, Finley; siblings, Craig Schweinler, Candice Schweinler and ex-wife, Paula Olson. Preceded in death by his parents and sister, Charlene "Cheri" Sowl. He left us too soon on August 25, 2023. “ Cevin was a man of few words, but his kind and tender cares of his mom spoke loudly of his great love for her and his family. I could always get a quick hug and funny comment when I visited. My sincerest sympathies for your loss of this beautiful heart.

“ I cannot remember a Holiday while I still lived in the area where Cevin was not there. So many years of memories... you will be missed Uncle Cevin. Rest well.
