“ Chancy was the brother I never had! Entered the Pettie family's lives when I was a young teenager. Let me drive his hot cars!!! Gave us 4 Davis children...the only nieces and nephews I have. His was a life well lived and shared.

“ *Uncle Chancy was one Cool Cat. Especially when he would come cruising up in his bright orange Vette . He was a wonderful man with a free spirit. He will be greatly missed by all. God give him a wonderful place in heaven, he so deserves it. I pray comfort & peace for all his family.

“ Dad, you, mom, Bonnie, and all of our much loved aunts and uncles, made us understand what family was and just how important they are. We were taught to love and respect each other and not to dwell on our imperfections (yes, :) some of us are less than perfect)! You loved us all despite our faults, and we learned it well. You will be missed by so many, but I KNOW I will miss you dad. I love you.
