

Daniel A. Lindberg

October 14, 1944 - February 1, 2024

Daniel A. Lindberg, 79, passed away on February 1, 2024 at SwedishAmerican Hospital. Born October 14, 1944 to Swan and Agda Lindberg in Oak Park. A long time Rockford resident, Dan was a Landscape Architect and a graduate of University of Illinois. He completed many commercial, residential, and public projects in the Rockford area; including bike paths, playgrounds and gardens; such as Millennium Fountain, Davis Park, the Sinissippi Bike Path, the floral clock and the Sportscore. He survived by his children, Kirsten (Paul) Benson, Erika Feldstein and Daniel H. Lindberg of Rockford; and their mother Jeanne Lindberg and grandchildren, Kat and Sofie Benson and Isaac and Ben Feldstein as well as sister, Mary Gemmel of Des Plaines. He is predeceased by his parents and sisters, Martha Magura and Lois Mayer. Memorial Service will be held at a later date. Arrangements entrusted to Grace Funeral & Cremation Services. Share a memory or condolence at www.graceFH.com.

Tribute Wall

JH

“ I knew Dan for over 50 years. I have fond memories of all the times we spent together with our families at the holidays. I remember his sense humor, story telling and wonderful voice. Deepest sympathies to Kirsten, Paul, Erika, Dan, Jr and the rest of the family. May he rest in peace.
Jim Harman

Jim Harman - February 12, 2024 at 05:20 PM

JK

“ Dan was a very talented landscape architect who created many noteworthy designs (mentioned in the obituary) around the Rockford area. I enjoyed working with Dan professionally in our partnership and knowing him as a friend. Condolences to his family. Jim Knoll

Jim Knoll - February 09, 2024 at 10:30 AM