“ The last time Scott came to visit, unfortunately it was before Covid hit so it's been a while, He and I shared the spices of the cheese which included ghost pepper, Carolina reaper, jalapeño, and habanero. No one else could eat this except for Scott and I and I'll tell you we ate the whole thing. I actually had to go back to get more lol over the years, going to visit Donna and Scott when they lived in Lake in the Hills, I had the opportunity to enjoy many meals that he thoroughly enjoyed cooking. I will miss him terribly.
