“ Andrea, please accept our sincere sympathy on Jim's passing. We enjoyed your presence in our EFCW Sunday school class when you lived in this area. I remember Jim with his BIG dog standing in front of the McHenry Jewel waiting for you and as people passed by they asked if that was a pony. Made us laugh! He'll be missed.

“ Andrea, thanks for your Christmas card. I just heard of Jim's passing. Though we haven't seen a lot of each since we moved away from the area, I considered Jim a good friend. My favorite memory was in trying to encourage Jim not to be so overpowering with others. Remember me trying to think of the idea of feeding a chipmunk? He's a good guy. I will miss him.
