“ Josh and Kurt, Just reading today’s newspaper and saw a familiar face. So sorry to hear of your mother’s passing. I was your Kindergarten teacher Josh. Your Mom was always willing to help out in your classroom and equally helpful in the adjoining Kindergarten classroom with Kurt. I remember she wanted both of you to have your own experiences at school and develop unique personality traits and interests. You boys are men now, must be 33-35 years old with wives and children. I’m confident you have given your Mom and Dad many proud moments. My thoughts are with u at this difficult time. Sincerely, Ms. Kathie Maher

“ Josh and Kurt,

So sorry to hear of your mom's untimely passing. It is with a heavy heart that I share this little story:

When you were very small, we would often babysit so your parents could take a much needed break from the TWO of you. Your mom would always have everything set up in detail, from juice boxes to bedtime chores, she had it organized and you guys knew the drill. One night, they came home very late, but upon their entry, you both came out of your bedroom (much to our surprise) and told on us! We had not "done what mom said" as we let you have an extra treat! Just shows the love and respect ran both ways.

Take care as you journey through life without her.

Best to you both-
