“Bean, I could share a million memories that would take me years. So I'll keep those for us for now. I can't tell you how much we miss you, how much mom needs you. I'm holding on to that you're happy, you're at peace, and you'll never have to hurt again. We will treasure these memories until we see you again. Hunter said he loves you, and misses you sooo much. I know you're up there living life, with Grandma and Shoudy, but I still feel you near me. Oh what I wouldn't give for your weekly "savannah, can I borrow ten dollars" phone call. But If I had it again, I'd never let you go. And now you need your time in heaven to finally have your peace. We love you to the moon && back plus so much more. We will see you again. Rest In Peace baby brother, and fly high. ❤️❤️❤️❤️

“Kenny was truly amazingly special he had a special gift of laughter he could make anyone who had a bad day laugh and I mean the laugh that comes from deep down he was truly amazingly special !! I was so amazingly blessed to have him part of my life and part of my family !!! I used to work for a paper company and I got to take him to work with me we laughed for hours and after work was over we went to Denny's for breakfast then we were on the way home and his mom called and told Kenny to hurry up oh my let me tell u he really hurried up like his mom said LOL !!! He was truly AMAZING !! Love and miss u Kenny so very much !!! God took his amazingly special angel !!!
