“ There are way too many memories for this special woman. She was the kindest soul on this earth. She was my mom and my best friend and I couldn't of asked for a better mom. I'm so devastated to lose this special person but I know she no longer suffers from cancer. May she thrive in heaven and be free!

“ Her husband billy would take all the kids every Christmas for many years so my sister and I could spend a whole week together shopping, staying up late into the night talking hanging out eating out we had the best time we looked forward to Christmas week for several years I will always cherish those memories.

“ From childhood on, she possessed the sweetest soul, a calm disposition, and an inner strength unmatched. She may be the most successful person I've ever known when you measure success by the size of your heart.
