One of my fondest memories is from long long ago....Christmas of 1967. My first Christmas married and pregnant with our first child (John), Tables were set up in the basement of Lois and Wes's home - lots of relatives there, a really good time! Until the Lutefisk was passed around.....oh my gosh I lost my appetite so fast. Lois understood and found some crackers for me:-). It was one of our silly stories that we would talk about each time we saw each other for a few years. Love you Aunt Lois you will be missed!

My fondest memories of Lois was when I would go over to visit her when she would come up to visit her sisters, Aunt Tootles, and Aunt Dorothy. When the sisters were together they were always so warm and welcoming. I'm so thankful that she will now have her memory and sight back... I'm sure her brothers (my dad and Uncle Ed) welcomed her and guided her into the Lords loving arms Love you Aunt Lois <3

Wes and Lois have always been faithful in encouraging family gatherings. My father Ed Wright held a special place in his heart for his baby sister and showed love and concern for her until the day he died. Thank you Lois for always making family important. Love, Steve & Beth Wright

May your Sweet Wife, Mother, Grandmother and Great Grandmother rest in Eternal Peace at the right hand of God. Lois was a Mother to every one of her children's friends. Always so calm and composed and willing to listen and guide us all. She was a very Special Woman. Wes and Lois were so perfect together. Our hearts ache for you all. God's Peace and Love to you all.
