“ We really had such great times with you guys, playing Scrabble and hanging out with us at our camping adventures. and even visiting us in our new place in Colorado... Now every time we play Scrabble, we will think of you guys. and if you remember correctly, you two bought us the Scrabble that we use all the time. We remember our long hikes and talking and having so much fun. Here is the picture we took at the Royal Gorge Railroad. Remember that like yesterday. It was a lot of fun having you visit us.
