“ Shalisa Wanted to visit Celebrate Recovery @ Heartland and she didnt wanna go by herself, so Her and I went. It was both of our first time visiting that recovery program and We visited a few times after that till they moved it out to the perryville location and we lost touch with the program for a while. But Im glad she introduced me to Celebrate Recover program because i knew nothing about it till she told me about it. I never relly got a chance to thank her for introduceing me to C/R but im sure she knows how thankfull i am for that experience. R.I.P Sis.
