“ My aunt susie was the sweetest and prettest woman i have ever met. I would like everyone to know i always went to her about advance with everything to staying fit, friends, boyfriends, crazy husbands, the weather, and kids you name it we talked about it. She knew something about everything every smart lady. Hours and hours on the phone i miss talking to her so much that i just talk out loud to her now and hope she can hear me because i know she's a angel in heaven cause of all the great things she did on earth. Sorry uncle Jim i know how much you love her just remember im still that girl who Admired your love for each other and I'm here for you I know that it would make her happy to know you have family here too. Love you both always, Danielle , Tyler, Kelsey, and now Bentley
