“ For me, Aunt Wanda, in memory, will never be at River Bluff. She will always be at 238 Winona Drive. I will remember the Christmas eve's, the Thanksgiving dinners and Rook tournaments, the countless "500" games between Uncle Leith and Priscilla, and me and Aunt Wanda.

Whenever I think of her, The sweet aroma of her fabulous Lemon pie, molasses cookies and mince meat cookies come to mind. You knew the holidays were close at hand. The countless pots of chili, stealing buttered bread from one another, a constant staple in the winter months, has sadly passed.

Her real legacy lies in her Great nieces and nephew , Michelle, Gina, Melinda and Dorian, Sometimes I think the loss will be harder on them than Pris and I. Jesse, Alexis, Andrew and Donavon were all blessed to have known her.

We have wonderful memories to draw on, which will surpass our sadness. Forever she will be missed.

Love,
Lynn & Priscilla
