“ I have fond memories of My Aunt Debbie . One of them being my junior prom . She was home visiting and she insisted she be the one to curl my hair and style it and do the make up and that she did . Another her very good cooking making fried rice like none other for most every get together when she was home visiting . I must share one more when she came to KY to live for a short while after James and I were married and she told me what to purchase and to come to her house one day spend the whole day while James was working and she would teach me to make those delicious egg rolls she made . Well I was willing to purchase the necessary, get up with the chickens and take my pregnant body to her house at Shelbiana . I was eager to learn because thing were good . Well we worked hardily all day preparing them . Did well had several for the freezer for later . Well I sure wish I could remember how to make them now . Aunt Debbie I guess God had you to make those ! Along with fried rice and what seemed to be like a hundred different kinds of cookies when I was a tittle girl . I missed seeing you last time you were here but, hope to meet you again some day . Sleep on sweetie I Love you ❤️ Love you Jimmy wish I could be with you . In my thoughts and prayers

“ Debbie was a wonderful lady, and I loved spending time with her. She was always ready to sit and chat when I needed to talk, and she loved to tell me stories about her life. I hadn't seen her in many years, but always have fond memories of her. And yes, she was a wonderful cook, and I enjoyed many good meals. Jim, my heart goes out to you and your family, because I know you are feeling great loss right now. She will always be with you, watching out for you. With love, Brenda O.

We were neighbors many years ago. Debbie did a lot of watching of our young children, Gloria and Karl, while I ran errands to the store or went bowling. We had many neighborly visits together, and also took a trip with Debbie to her mother's homestead in KY. I liked Debbie's smile and many stories she had of growing up in KY.

“ *You were the baby and I being the oldest had to watch and hold you. we have laughed many times telling the stories of how I would pinch you to make you cry so Mom would have to take you. There aren't words to describe the love and bond we shared. A piece of my heart goes with you and I know you are in the hands of a just God. I have a hope of seeing you again someday. Rest in peace my precious sister. I love you and will miss our talks. Your sister

“ Aunt Debbie I always loved when you came to visit, as a child I thought you were a movie star. We were just watching some old home movies that Uncle Richard would always record. Back then it was like being in movies, as we watched I told my children how beautiful and elegant you always were. they said I got my dance moves from you. I have so many memories of picnics and rides. The sound of your voice, your laugh and your amazing cooking. I will miss your phone call on my birthday and the love I always felt. My heart breaks for Jimmy, I know how much you loved him. I pray he find peace and comfort in knowing you are no longer in pain and in the arms of Angels. I will always love you.

“ Debbie was a great person. I remember coming over and she told me that she made me ribs just like she said she would. I don't remember mentioning ribs. They were delicious. She was a great cook, knitter, crafter, babysitter, and mother. May she rest in peace. She will be missed. Love Michele and Jim Svestka

“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Wyoma. I met her when I was working at OSF. She and Jim would always stop by my office to say hello anytime she had an appointment. She made the best zucchini bread too! I pray for God's peace to embrace all of her family that she left behind. A special prayer to her son Jim. RIP Wyoma
